Essentials forLife

THE ULTIMATE SIX-IN-ONE SUPPLEMENT FOR SUPERIOR
DAILY NUTRITION & OPTIMAL HEALTH, ENERGY & VITALITY

ESSENTIALS FOR LIFE TECHNICAL INFORMATION

There are five fundamental nutritional needs that must be met on a daily basis – vitamins, minerals, antioxidants, enzymes and flora. Environmental toxins, pollution, stress and poor diets place a significant burden on the body and have created greater nutritional needs than ever before. In addition, depleted soils and cooked and processed foods have made it difficult, if not impossible, to meet these daily nutritional needs from foods alone. As a result, nutritional supplementation in all five of these core areas is recommended for optimal health.

VITAMINS:

The best source of vitamins is from whole food sources. Whole food sources of vitamins not only provide the essential vitamins, but also supply all the natural cofactors and synergistic phytonutrients required for optimal health in the balance nature intended. Vitamins, minerals and phytonutrients work synergistically with each other and must be provided in the correct balance to achieve health. Too much of one nutrient can cause an imbalance and potentially do more harm than good. In other words, more is not always better and the body needs the right amount of a nutrient rather than more of it. A true nutrient must contain the vitamins along with its natural synergists (naturally associated factors) as found in unrefined food. Essentials for Life is superior to other supplements because it provides a full complement of rich whole food vitamin sources in the proper amounts for complete nutrition.

MINERALS

The form of mineral used in a product is critical because it determines the extent to which the body can use the supplemental mineral. Many forms of minerals on the market are poorly absorbed, and consequently are largely excreted from the body as waste. Simply put, minerals only benefit the body to the extent they can be absorbed and utilized. Essentials for Life contains a balanced blend of all the essential minerals needed by the body in the most absorbable form, as amino acid chelated minerals. They are assimilated by the body as amino acids rather than minerals, so they have the highest absorption rate possible. By increasing the absorption rate, the minerals in Essentials for Life are more readily available so the body will have the supply of minerals it needs for a healthy metabolism and a strong immune system.

ANTIOXIDANTS

Essentials for Life provides potent levels of cutting-edge antioxidants such as grape seed extract, pine bark extract, a patented organic olive extract, resveratrol from grape skin, quercetin, blueberry, cranberry and raspberry, along with selenium and natural sources of the antioxidant vitamins A, C and E. This combination of antioxidant sources provides the strongest and most complete balance of antioxidants to fight free radicals, and includes powerful, natural antioxidant compounds like bioflavanoids, polyphenols (including hydroxytyrosol and resveratrol), anthocyanadins, carotenoids, tocopherols, tocotrienols and more. Additionally, it contains an SOD Precursor System used exclusively by Vollara brand products. This system allows the body to create more of its own powerful antioxidant enzyme, Superoxide Dismutase.

ENZYMES

Essentials for Life contains the full spectrum of enzymes required by the body to assist in digestion and absorption. Raw food naturally contains the enzymes necessary to digest itself. However, enzymes are destroyed by the high temperatures required to cook food. Thus, most methods of cooking and processing leave food devoid of enzymes and place the full burden of digestion on the body. In essence, eating processed foods “robs” the body of the energy it needs for growth, maintenance and repair of its tissues and organ systems. Essentials for Life replenishes your body with these critical enzymes.

FLORA

Your body needs to have a sufficient amount of “friendly flora” or “good” bacteria to sustain good intestinal health. These bacteria are destroyed by such common factors as carbonated drinks, laxatives, birth control pills, coffee, alcohol, aging, stress and antibiotics. Maintaining and promoting the growth of helpful bacteria, while destroying the harmful strains, is vital to health. If harmful bacteria grow in too great a proportion, serious consequences can arise. The level of health and well-being we enjoy is affected by how well we maintain a wholesome environment in which these microorganisms can live and flourish. The regular inclusion of supplemental flora contained in Essentials for Life supports the healthy growth of needed bacteria.

SUPPORT FOR FAT AND SUGAR METABOLISM

Recognizing the harmful effects of fats, many people have chosen to greatly reduce their fat intake. However, fat is a vital source of energy and is essential to the workings of all the body's systems. Nutritional research shows that the healthiest diets contain significant amounts of naturally-occurring fats, especially unsaturated fats. The key to the benefit of dietary fat is simply to make sure that fats are digested. To address this need, Essentials for Life has included a high level of the enzyme lipase to ensure that fat is digested. Lipase breaks fat into fatty acids that can be utilized for energy. Along with lipase, Essentials for Life includes extra chromium, a vital ingredient to support and work with the body's insulin. This is important because insulin helps to regulate blood sugar and control hunger; regulate energy, fat burning and muscle building; govern the utilization of cholesterol; and resist disease by stimulating the immune system. Vollara's Essentials for Life is your complete solution to conveniently and cost effectively meeting your body's core nutritional supplementation needs. Use this advanced system to help you achieve optimal health, energy and vitality.
